KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HOLD SECOND INITIATION.

Knights of Columbus Hold Second Initiation.

Last Sunday was another big day at Collegeville for on that day the second and third degrees were exemplified to a class of seventy candidates. Mass was celebrated at St. Augustine's Church, Rensselaer, Ind., after which, the candidates and Knights started for the College. At about one thirty, the degree team of La Fayette began the exemplification of the second degree which was followed by the third under the auspices of the excellent Fort Wayne team. Owing too the war, the regular banquet was dispensed with.

FR. CLEMENT CELEBRATES SILVER JUBILEE.

On May 23rd, Rev. Father Clement Schuette, C. PP. S., celebrated at the College the twenty-fifth anniversary of his priesthood and professor-ship. The day opened with a Solemn Highmass at which the Rev. Jubilarian was the celebrant and was assisted by his two brothers, Rev. Vitus Schuette and Rev. Alexius Schuette, both of the Precious Blood order. Rev. Vitus Schuette delivered the jubilee sermon. Solemn services in the afternoon made the day one to be long remembered.

TURNER PROGRAM.

Those who attended the Turner Program, presented by the athletic association on the eve of Fr.Clement's jubilee, were far from a disappointed audience. Considering the short training which the greatest part of the troop had received, the result was really surprising. With many new tricks and entirely different clown stunts the evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The graduation exercises at St. Joe this year promise to be very extraordinary. The presence of the Editor of the "Our Sunday Visitor" and many other notable guests assure us that Collegeville will have many visitors next week. Due to illness the Bishop will not be able to be present. The program for the exercises will be as follows:

Wednesday evening, June the twelfth at eight o'clock

Salutatory — Sylvester Ley. "The Merchant of Venice."

Thursday morning, June the thirteenth, at eight o'clock

Baccalaureate Address — Rev. John F. Noll, LL.D.,Editor of the "Our Sunday Visitor." Valedictory — Matthias A. Lause. Awarding of Medals and Diplomas

COLLEGE WAR FUND GOES "OVER THE TOP".

The College war fund for the Knights of Coumbus which was to reach $1000.00 has gone over the top. The students have done wonderful work in this campaign and deserve great credit.

St. Viators 16 — St. Joe 8.

One bad inning on May 15 in which St. Viators were donated ten runs by St. Joe's errors gave them the game. Foehrenbacher's support was poor or another story could be told.

Batteries: St. Viators, Bernard, Mongue, Dunne.

St. Joe, Foehrenbacher and Von der Haar. Hits off Bernard 4; off Mongue 6; off Foehrenbacher 9. Struck out by Bernard 6; by Mongue 3; by Foehrenbacher 9. Base on balls off Bernard 2; off Mongue 4; off Foehrenbacher 6.

Umpire, Cusack.

Indiana State Normal 7 St. Joe 0.

Indiana State Normal shut out St. Joe May 18 by the score of 7 to 0 due again to loose playing on the part of St. Joe. I. S. N. is one of the best teams that have played here in a long time, but why should St. Joe donate them the game?

Batteries: I. S. N., Kerr, Clark. St. Joe, Foehrenbacher and Von der Haar. Hits off Kerr 5; off Foehrenbacher 9. Struck out by Kerr 9; by Foehrenbacher 3. Base on balls off Kerr 3; off Foehrenbacher 1. Umpire, Vogt.

Hammond 7 — St. Joe 3.

It seems that St. Joe has practiced to make errors when they get i na game, for they lost to Hammond 7 to 3 for this season. There is no way too excuse this game in the students' eyes. Some of the players give us their best while others do nothing; a change in the lineup might help out some.

Batteries: Hammond, Dalton, Tague. St. Joe, Foehrenbacher and Von der Haar. Hits off Dalton 9; off Foehrenbacher 8. Struck out, Dalton 7, by Foehrenbacher 13. Base on balls, off Dalton 3, off Foehrenbacher 2. Umpire, Vogt.

St. Viators 4 — St. Joe 3.

St. Joe with a changed lineup showed that they can play ball. June 1st the visitors won 4 to 3, but it was a good game, it was not donated like the rest of the games had been. The team had life in it that must have been dormant before. There is but one regret and that is that the team did not wake up in April.

Batteries: St. Viators, Mongue, Dunne. St. Joe, Foehrenbacher, Von der Haar. Hits off Mongue 7; off Foehrenbacher 10. Struck out by Mongue 8, by Foehrenbacher 6. Base on balls, off Mongue 7, Foehrenbacher 3. Umpire, Fr. Barth.

SENIORS!

Stop, Seniors, stop — cast behind you your eyes
Just for a moment, to gaze at what lies
Back of you. Six years have come, and have gone
Six years! And now you're beholding the dawn
Of a new life. The great World lies outside your door.

'Tis there to be conquered, as lessons of yore.
Six years! Alas—all too short the time seems,
Now that you've come to the goal of your dreams.
Times there have been, when the tide seemed too strong.

When all that you did somehow seemed to be wrong.

You wondered, then, if after all, 'twas worth while To strive to subdue each new worry and trial. But the clouds always passed, and you forged straight ahead,

Thru Six busy years. And now they are fled. And always, in late life, fondly you'll crow And think of the dear old days spent at ST. JOE! TO '19.

Toil on! Toil on! Ye perpetual train,
Who seeks higher glory and praise to attain;
Toil on! Oh ye Juniors of number vast,
For your Junior days will soon be past.
We Seniors, departing, to ye do turn o'er
All duties and honors which proudly we wore.
Be true to your trust — 'tis your heritage due —
Toil on, and strive upward — our faith is in you.

HE HAD A LOT OF SENSE.

There was an old geezer And he had a lot of sense; He started up a business on A dollar eighty cents. The dollar for the stock And the eighty for the ad, Brought him three dollars In a day, by dad.

Well, he bought more goods
And a little more space.
And he played that system
With a smile on his face.
The customers flocked
To his two by four,
And soon he had to hustle
For a regular store.

Up on the square
Where the people passed,
He gobbled up a corner
That was all plate glass.
He fixed up the windows
With the best that he had,
And he told them all about it
In a half page ad.

He soon had them coming,
And he never, never quit,
And he wouldn't cut down
On his ads one bit.
And he kept things humming
In that town ever since:
Everybody calls him
The merchant prince.

Some say, it's luck,
But that's all bunk,
Why, he was doing business when
The times were real punk.
People had to purchase
And the geezer was wise,
For he knew the way to get them
Was to advertise....

EDITORIALS.

VALE!

IT is finished. Today our life as editors of the 'Cheer' is but a pleasant memory. Since last September we have striven to produce a paper worthy of St. Joe. And as we carefully review the fourten issues comprising Volume X and compare them with the recognized standards of college publications throughout the country, we conclude that our efforts have not been in vain, and that our contribution to Cheer History may well hold a dignified position with the volumes which have preceded it.

And we feel, in closing, that it is but fit and proper that due credit be given to those who, by their untiring efforts, have been responsible for the 'Cheer's success during the past year.

First we desire to thank the student body for the wonderful co-operation which they have given us, both by contributions and patronage, every time we have called upon them. We can easily see how St. Joe attained the heights she now holds by possessing such a loyal body of students.

We are indebted to many members of the faculty, especially Fr. Albin, whose suggestions have been invaluable to us.

As to the Editors themselves, modesty restrains us from expressing our views toward them. They find nothing more pleasing than, in the quiet of the study-hall, seated at their desks, to glance slowly over the leaves of the flower which they have cherished so dearly during the past year. And as they look back on the time and energy spent, for the amount of both has been great, to do their duty to the Class of '18 and to St. Joe, they wonder, not if the efforts have been appreciated, but whether their classmates and the student body as a whole are satisfied with Volume X. If they are satisfied the Staff is satisfied. They have no apologies to make, no regrets, only the hope that future 'Cheers' will be bigger and better than Volume X.

Enthusiasm.

Enthusiasm is the greatest business asset in the world. It beats money and power and influence. Singlehanded the enthusiast convinces and dominates where a small army of workers would scarcely raise a tremor of interest. Enthusiasm tramples over prejudice and opposition, spurns inaction, storms the citadel of its object, and like an avalanche overwhelms and engulfs all obstacles. Enthusiasm is faith in action; and faith and initiative rightly combined remove mountainous barriers and achieve the unheard of and miraculous. Set the germ of enthusiasm affoat in your business; carry it in your attitude and manner; it spreads like a contagion and influences every fiber of your industry; it begers and inspires effects you did not dream of; it means increase in production and decrease in costs; it means joy and pleasure and satisfaction to your workers; it means life real and virile; it means spontaneous bedrock results — the vital things that pay dividends.

Leo's Recitation.

Once there was a little boy, His name was Leo Niese, And every Friday afternoon He had to speak a piece.

So many poems thus he learned That soon he had a store Of recitations in his head And still kept learning more.

Now this is how it happened He was called upon one week And he totally forgot the piece He was suuposed to speak.

His brain he cudgeled Not a word left in his head, And so he spoke at random And this is what he said:

"My beautiful, my beautiful, Who standeth proudly by, She was the schooner Hesperus. The breaking waves dashed high.

Why is the forum crowded, What means this stir in Rome, Under the spreading chestnut tree There is no place like home.

When freedom from her mountain height Cried, Twinkle little star.
Shoot if you must this old gray head, King Henry of Navarre.

If you're waking call me early — To be or not to be.
The curfew must ring tonight
Oh woodman spare that tree.

His elocution was superb His voice and gestures fine His classmates all applauded As he finished the last line.

The Newman Club Celebration.

My dear fellow Newmans, the day is now here That adds to our record another bright year; That tells us, too, as many may guess, Of our task, our work, and now our success. For most of us present, three years have gone by, Since we came to St. Joseph's-just slipped from the tie That bound us to home with the maternal sweet string. To fond mem'ries like these, our minds still do cling. Some of us hoped in that first Junior year To win fair renown in athletic career; And some may have taken a more profound view, But we all had ambitions, some many, some few. Once when we heard at a Newman Club play A few struggling words from a Grad of today We clearly foresaw that a year or two hence Others would smile at our own brave attempts. And we did reach the goal — if goal it is Each member knows what feelings were his When he mounted the stage with quivering knees O fearful moments! But we came on by degrees Till the Rev'rend Director deemed some of us fit For the public, (and surely we made a great hit.) We had chosen a leader of brawn and of brain Mr. Ferdinand Wellman, a man in the main, Who held for three months his place at the table, Then left us to find another as able. This we did in our next great election, Since none can complain of our worthy selection We chose one as famed for his great mental strength As he's looked up for his marvellous length. Carl Schnitz is his name; and you surely have heard That he's wiser than anyone of all the Third. So this brings us down to the present time, And gives honest pleasure, that to miss is a crime. It bids us likewise, to ever remember That happy hot June and distasteful September Bind together the history of our past Newman year, Which, being our only one, we should hold dear. Who among us can ever forget? Who of our members will ever regret The hours that we spent in class room VIII? Who will forget Stock's solemn discourse, Or Maurice Yenn's elocutional force, Or Charles J. Sheehan, ever true to his name, Who won perhaps more than an Irishman's fame, Or sagatious John Mutter's base voice in command, Or the discordant strain of the Newman Club Band? These little things that now make us smile In ven'rable age will, our tears beguile. And surely there's none who's in such a bad mood, As to forget Fr. Maurice, the gentle, the good. He, the Constitution, the Power, the Throne, And we, his vassals, proud to call him our own. And we may know that in some far distant day When his brow is more wrinkled, his hair silver gray, He will think of us then with the same kindly care And 'mid joy and sorrow will whisper a prayer For the Newman Club members assembled today To celebrate this memorable 30th of May.

What????

In a newly mustered Irish regiment a conscientious lieutenant was haranguing (Hannibal style) his men before starting for the front.

"It all depends on yez byes," he exhorted. Will yez fight or will yez run?"

"We will!"

"Will what?"

"Will not!" responded the men with one accord.

"I knew yez would," said the satisfied officer proudly.

I've fussed at and worked at it; I've grabbed the crank and jerked at it; I've backed it up and jacked it up; I've often well nigh hacked it up; I've bullied it and worried it And humored it and curried it; Day after day in vain I've worked. I cannot find a blasted thing That's wrong with that dadgasted thing. It seems to have no fault but one No power on earth can make it run.
